Signing into the Acuity Online Booking System App

Sometimes the Acuity App will automatically log you out of the App. This may occur after some time not using the App or if you close the App or if there is a App update.
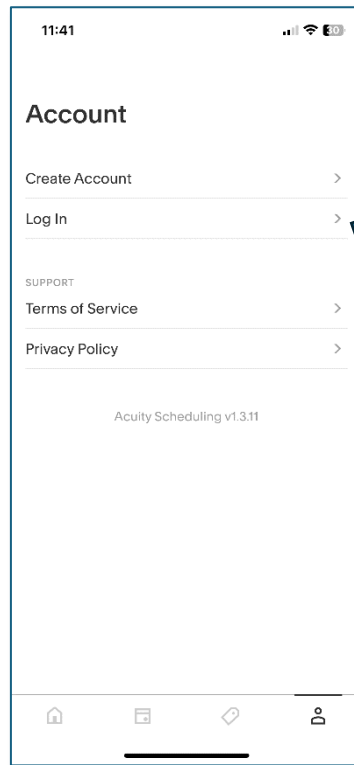

To Log In again, just follow these steps. These steps are for those people who have already created an Account in Acuity. If you have not previously created an account, Select "Create Account" in Step 2 instead of "Log In".

Step 1 – Open the Acuity App on your Phone. On the Home Page, press the little person logo on the bottom right hand of the screen to go to the Account Page.

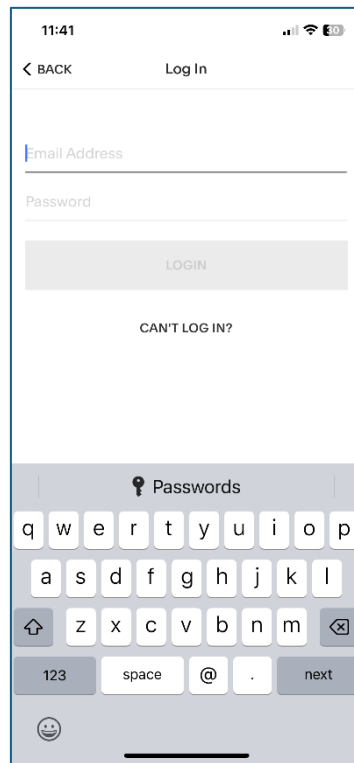

Press the little person icon
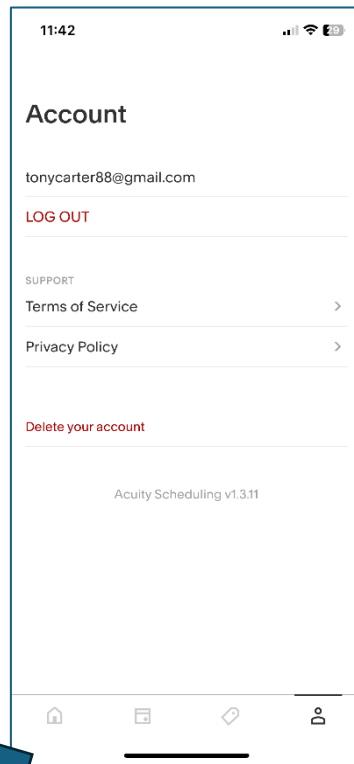

Step 2 – On the Account Page, press "Log In".
